

Job Opening Announcement

August 1, 2019

Conservation Project Manager

The Land Conservancy of San Luis Obispo County is pleased to announce a job opening for the position of Conservation Project Manager. The Conservation Project Manager will join a dynamic land conservation program that has successfully protected more than 20,000 acres. They will be responsible for land conservation project development, grant writing and research, drafting conservation easements, creating baseline documentation reports and land stewardship plans, monitoring conservation easements and fee-owned lands, conducting geographic analyses in support of conservation projects, and producing high-quality maps and reports. The Conservation Project Manager will become familiar with The Land Conservancy's Strategic Goals and Land Trust Alliance (LTA) Standards and Practices, The Land Conservancy's suite of conservation properties, ongoing Land Conservancy projects, and the organization's current Strategic Plan. The Land Conservancy is a successful, nationally accredited, 501(c)(3) non-profit land trust based in San Luis Obispo, CA. This is a great opportunity to work for a well-respected organization on interesting and exciting conservation projects.

This is a full-time position with a competitive benefits package that includes health, vision and dental insurance, a 401K plan with company match, Paid Time Off, and paid holidays. Starting compensation ranges from $18 to $25 per hour, DOE. To apply, please visit our website at www.lcslo.org to download the job description and blank application.
