

Job Opening Announcement

July 25, 2022

Oak Education Manager

The Land Conservancy of San Luis Obispo County is pleased to announce a job opening for the position of Oak Education Manager. The Oak Education Manager position is an office and field-based position, playing an essential role in the on-the-ground implementation of the Land Conservancy's Learning Among The Oaks (LATO) projects and programs. The Oak Education Manager assists in planning, development and implementation of conservation and education projects on Land Conservancy owned properties and in contract with local school agencies.

The Land Conservancy is a local, private, non-profit land trust working to conserve and care for the diverse wildlands, farms, and ranches of the Central Coast. We connect people to the land and to each other. The organization strives to create a fun, inspiring, and family-friendly work environment, a team-oriented structure, and good benefits.

The Oak Education Manager will report directly to the Executive Director and work closely with the Land Conservancy's staff. This is a full-time non-exempt (40 hours per week), ongoing position with a benefits package that includes health insurance, 401K plan with company match, Paid Time Off (PTO), paid holidays, and dental and vision plans. Starting compensation will be $25 to $30 per hour depending heavily on experience. To apply, please visit our website at www.lcslo.org to download the job description and blank application. If you do not have access to the internet, applications may be picked up at our office. Please submit a cover letter, resume, and employment application via email, mail, fax, or in person. Incomplete application packages will NOT be considered. The position is open until filled. The Land Conservancy will begin reviewing applications as early as May 16th, 2022 and the position will likely start in July. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE.
