

Job Opening Announcement

October 3, 2022

Conservation Program Manager

The Land Conservancy of San Luis Obispo County is pleased to announce a job opening for the position of Conservation Project Manager in our land program. The Conservation Project Manager will be responsible for land conservation project development, grant writing and project funding development, conservation easement drafting, baseline documentation reports, land stewardship / management plans, conservation easement monitoring assistance, and on-going landowner and government relations. The Conservation Project Manager will also become familiar with The Land Conservancy's Strategic Goals and Land Trust Alliance (LTA) Standards and Practices. The Conservation Project Manager is also part of The Land Conservancy accreditation project team working towards LTA Accreditation renewal in 2024 and subsequent accreditation renewals. The Land Conservancy is a highly successful, nationally accredited, not-for-profit land trust based in San Luis Obispo on the Central Coast of California. This is a great opportunity to work for a well respected organization on interesting and exciting projects.

This is a full time position with a competitive benefits package that includes health insurance, participation in the company's 401K plan, Paid Time Off, and paid holidays. Starting compensation ranges from $24 to $30 per hour, depending on experience. To apply, please visit our website at www.lcslo.org to download the job description and blank application. If you do not have access to the internet, applications may be picked up at our office. Please submit a cover letter, resume, and employment application via email, mail, fax, or in person. Incomplete application packages will not be considered. The position is open until filled. The Land Conservancy will review applications as they are received. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE.
